

1-800-DryClean franchise owner finds time for learning and living

Shannon Toler-New, president 1-800-DryClean franchise, recently welcomed the company's newest franchise owner, Wynn Zheng, to the leading dry-clean delivery franchise opportunity.

“Wynn was attracted to our dry-clean delivery business because it will afford him the opportunity to continue his passion for learning,” said Toler-New. “As a 1-800-DryClean franchise owner operator, Wynn will have the financial security and the time to pursue the personal interests that he richly deserves such as online college courses.”

Zheng joins the 1-800-DryClean franchise family from a leading eye-care company after his clinical programming job was moved overseas.

“Wynn lives by the adage that if you're not learning, you're dying,” added Toler-New. “He's a very persistent individual, which is why we know he'll be a successful dry-cleaning delivery franchise owner.

“We were named an AllBusiness AllStar franchise for 2009,” said Toler-New. “Helping franchise owners realize their dreams of financial security and lifestyle rewards are reasons we're thriving even in a down economy.”
